CHAPTER 2

RECRUITING AND TRAINING

Appointments:

There was a total of 182 appointments to the Force during 1957, as follows: One hundred and seventy-eight (178) Police Constables and four (4) Policewomen. These figures include one hundred and two (102) new appointments, seven (7) re-appointments, one (1) Police Cadet, five (5) Civilian Employees of the Department appointed to the Force, and sixty-seven (67) Temporary Clerks and Mechanics who were given such temporary employment while awaiting final approval of their applications for employment as Police Constables.

TRAINING COURSES — Four courses of training at which a total of one hundred and twenty-seven (127) Police Constables and five (5) Policewomen were in attendance and received their complete probationary training were held during 1957. In addition to these four courses of training, a further course being attended by thirty-three (33) Police Constables and three (3) Policewomen was in progress at the end of the year. Particulars of these courses are as follows:

Dates of Courses	Number Attending
March 4 to May 3, 1957 (9 weeks).....	24
May 13 to July 12, 1957 (9 weeks).....	36
July 22 to Sept. 20, 1957 (9 weeks).....	37
Sept. 30 to Nov. 29, 1957 (9 weeks).....	35
Dec. 9, 1957 - Course not completed as of Dec. 31, 1957 (4 weeks in 1957).....	36
Total.....	168

COURSES IN FIRST AID TO THE INJURED — A total of two hundred and one (201) Constables attended six (6) courses in First A id to the Injured held during 1957 under the direction of the St. John Ambulance Association, and all attending these courses were successful in obtaining pass marks on this subject.

GENERAL — The authorized strength of the Department was two thousand, two hundred and eighty-eight (2,288) all ranks as of December 31, 1957, and Probationary or 3rd Class Police Constables and Policewomen continued to be employed during the year to fill vacancies occasioned by the resignations, dismissals and deaths of members of the Force.

As of January 1, 1957, a system of cadet training was instituted, and, as a result, two hundred and sixty-four (264) young men were interviewed. After careful consideration of the Selection Committee, Medical Officer and investigation, nineteen (19) were employed.

Difficulty was still experienced in maintaining the Force at authorized strength throughout 1957, due mainly to the fact that many applicants were unable to comply with existing requirements (physical and educational) for appointment as Police Constables.

There were no major changes made during the year with respect to the qualifications necessary for employment as Police Constables and Policewomen.

One thousand, nine hundred and twenty-nine (1,929) young men personally visited the Personnel Employment Office during the year for the purpose of applying for employment as Police Constables. These young men were all interviewed and following such interviews written applications were accepted in seven hundred and twenty-two (722) instances. The reason for non-acceptance of applications in the remaining one thousand, two hundred and seven (1207) instances being, primarily, that the young men concerned failed to meet existing requirements respecting age, height, weight, education, or had physical defects which would preclude their possibilities of being employed as Police Constables.

Three hundred and thirty-four (334) of the seven hundred and twenty-two (722) applications accepted were given consideration by the Selection Committee and the applicants concerned were required to appear before such Committee for interview. The Selection Committee, after due consideration of these applications for employment as Police Constables, gave approval for employment to two hundred and ninety-six (296) of the total number interviewed. The remaining thirty-eight (38) applicants were rejected as unsuitable for employment as Police Constables.

Three hundred and twenty (320) applicants for employment as Constables received complete physical examinations by our Medical Officers and, as a result of such examinations, three hundred and one (301) applicants were approved and nineteen (19) applicants were rejected as being considered physically incapable of performing the duties of members of the Force.

Very thorough investigations are made in respect to the character and background of all applicants under consideration for employment as Police Constables and during 1957, in view of such investigations, forty-eight (48) applicants, tentatively approved by the Selection Committee and Medical Officer, were given reconsideration by the Selection Committee and were rejected as unsuitable for employment as Police Constables.

During 1957, twenty-one (21) applications were withdrawn by the applicants concerned after receiving approval of the Selection Committee and Medical Officer for employment as Police Constables, and two (2) applicants failed to report to commence employment after being notified of approval.

As of December 31, 1957, forty-three (43) applicants were awaiting approval of appointment to the Force.

PARADES — In connection with the annual Metropolitan Toronto Police Amateur Athletic Association Field Day held at the Canadian National Exhibition on Saturday, July 20, 1957, some three hundred and ten (310) members of the Force took part in a "March Past" headed by Chief of Police John Chisholm. The salute was taken by His Worship Magistrate C.O. Bick, Chairman of the Metropolitan Board of Commissioners of Police.

REVOLVER PRACTICE AND INSTRUCTION — Revolver instruction and practice was conducted for all members of the Force at Nos. 4, 6, 12, 17, 20, 21 and 25 Police Revolver Ranges and, with the kind permission of the Commanding Officer, at Fort York Armoury from October 21st to October 25th, inclusive. During this period one thousand, seven hundred and forty-seven (1,747) members of the Force attended at the Revolver Ranges to receive instruction in the care and use of their revolvers and to participate in shooting practice.

Thirty-five (35) members of the Force did not attend this practice due to illness and one hundred and two (102) members, who happened to be on Annual Leave at the time of the practice, were also absent. There were five (5) members excused from this practice; three on medical grounds, and two who had not yet received instruction in the use of firearms.

Special instruction and revolver practice continued to be given all Probationary Police Constables and Policewomen appointed during the year at No. 4 Division Revolver Range.

Members of the Force are allowed eighteen days sick a year, which is cumulative without limitation, except on retirement when the maximum period for which full pay is granted is six Calendar months on the the completion of twenty-five years' service. The time allowance granted members of the Force required to attend Court during off-duty periods is three hours for each day's attendance. The policy of granting members of the uniformed branch, who worked overtime, equivalent time off was not changed during 1957. All police equipment and uniform clothing, with the exception of socks and underclothing, is supplied by the Department. The amount allowed members of the Force performing duties in plainclothes is $200.00 per year, or an amount in proportion to $200.00 per year when periods of service performed in plainclothes exceeds a total of thirty days in one year.

Qualifying Examinations for Promotion

On April 4, 1957, the Metropolitan Board of Commissioners of Police approved a system of promotions within the Force whereby:

(a) Constables and Officers with ranks below that of an Inspector will be required to undergo qualifying examinations for promotion and be successful in passing such examinations before they will be eligible for promotion to the next higher rank.

(b) It will be at the discretion of the Metropolitan Board of Commissioners of Police whether Officers of the Force in the rank of Inspector, or a higher rank, will be required to undergo and be successful in passing qualifying examinations to be eligible for promotion to the next higher rank.

1. No Constable will be permitted to undergo a qualifying examination for promotion until he has completed three (3) years' service on the Force.

2. No Constable will be eligible for promotion to the rank of Patrol Sergeant or Detective until he has completed five (5) years' service on the Force.

3. A member of the Force who fails to pass a qualifying examination for promotion will not be eligible to undergo a second such examination until the expiration of one year from the date of his first examination.

4. Should a member of the Force, while he is a Constable or holding any other particular higher rank, fail in two qualifying examinations for promotion, he will not be permitted to write a third such examination unless permission to do so is granted by a reviewing Committee.

5. Qualifying Examinations for Promotion will be of one day's duration and shall consist of:

   (a) General Knowledge Test,
   (b) Aptitude Test,
   (c) Oral and written tests on police knowledge and procedures.

6. Qualifying Examinations for Promotion will, as far as possible, be held twice yearly, commencing in May and continuing every six months thereafter.

7. Prior to the dates qualifying examinations for promotion are scheduled for Constables, or for Officers with particular ranks, members of the Force eligible to participate in such examinations, and desirous of doing so, will be required to complete forms of application to attend the examinations. When these application forms are completed, they are to be handed to the Officer in Charge of the member's Division and shall be forwarded forthwith to the Deputy Chief, Administration Branch.

8. The actual selection of questions for any particular examination will be the responsibility of the Metropolitan Board of Commissioners of Police and selected questions will be delivered in sealed envelopes to the Officer in Charge of the examination immediately prior to the commencement of the examination.

9. When promotions to any particular rank are to be made within the Force, a Promotions Committee consisting of the four Deputy Chiefs of Police, the Chief Inspector, and such District Chiefs as may be required, will give consideration to members of the Force who have been successful in obtaining pass marks in the qualifying examinations for promotion to such particular rank. The Promotions Committee, as well as considering the marks obtained by candidates in their qualifying examinations, will give consideration to the other personal qualifications of eligible candidates, and when its selections and and recommendations in respect to promotions have been finalized, such selections and recommendations will be submitted to the Metropolitan Board of Commissioners of Police for consideration.

Following the inauguration of the system of qualifying examinations for promotion, such examinations were held for Police Constables and Patrol Sergeants during 1957.

A total of ninety (90) candidates attended the 1957 Patrol Sergeants' Qualifying Examinations for Promotion. Fifty-three (58.9%) of such candidates were successful in obtaining marks of 65% or more in their examinations and thereby qualified for consideration by the Promotions Committee for promotion to the rank of Sergeant.

A total of five hundred and nine (509) candidates attended the 1957 Constables' Qualifying Examinations for Promotion. Two hundred and forty-six (48.3%) of such candidates were successful in obtaining marks of 65% or more in their examinations and thereby qualified for consideration by the Promotions Committee for promotions to the rank of Detective or Patrol Sergeant.

Civil Defence

During 1957, one Sergeant, four Patrol Sergeants and two Police Constables received courses of training in Civil Defence at the Federal Civil Defence College, Arnprior, Ontario, and graduated as fully-qualified Civil Defence Instructors, thus bringing the number of Civil Defence Instructors in the Department to fifty-one. Twenty-five sub-division control rooms have been procured and furnished up to 1957 and civil defence training carried out and instruction given in all phases of civil defence — Auxiliary Police, Wardens, Radiation Monitoring, Rescue, First Aid and Basic Civil Defence. Over five hundred Auxiliary Police Constables have received training in St. John Ambulance First Aid, Basic Civil Defence and ten weeks of Auxiliary Police Training. Of this number three hundred and eighty-five have been equipped with police uniforms, including Reefer, Sam Browne Belt, Baton and Handcuffs.

Thirty-three women were uniformed and trained as Auxiliary Policewomen during 1957, with seventeen to be trained in 1958, which will bring the total complement of Auxiliary Policewomen to fifty. Forty-eight Traffic Officers in Central Garage were trained in Traffic Control and Safety Control and are attached to Central Garage.

During 1957 there were three classes of Auxiliary Policewomen, Auxiliary Police Constables and Auxiliary Traffic Constables sworn-in at a Special Parade headed by Deputy Chief Edward C. Dunn at the R.C.A.F. Station, 1107 Avenue Road. Swearing-in Ceremonies were conducted by Magistrate Charles O. Bick, Chairman of the Metropolitan Board of Commissioners of Police, Chief of Police John Chisholm, Metropolitan Toronto Police, and Alderman Donald Summerville, Chairman of the Metropolitan Toronto Civil Defence Organization.

Civil Defence Courses continued to be held during 1957 for regular Police Constables at Metropolitan Toronto Civil Defence Headquarters, 280 Davenport Road, with one hundred and sixty-eight Probationary Constables attending the three day courses to receive instruction in Basic Civil Defence.

In addition, two hundred and thirty-four Police Constables and Officers attended special week-end courses in Radiation Monitoring at Civil Defence Headquarters.

At the present there are six-hundred and fifteen regular Police Constables enrolled in Civil Defence Sub-Divisions in Metropolitan Toronto.

Traffic Safety Division

On April 9, 1957, the Metropolitan Council approved of the establishment of a Metropolitan Traffic Safety Division of the Traffic Engineering Department and the police officers assigned to school children safety education being seconded and attached to the Traffic Safety Division. However, on October 8, 1957, the Metropolitan Council rescinded its previous decision, and the Traffic Safety Division was established within the Metropolitan Toronto Police Department. The Traffic Safety Division is under the direct supervision of an Inspector, who controls a staff of eight Police Constables, who lecture to school children and service clubs, etc., and three civilian employees.

There are 370 elementary schools in the Metropolitan Toronto area and the Safety Division conducts an educational programme for school children featuring "Elmer", the Safety Elephant, designed to focus attention on traffic hazards and to encourage them to practise and develop habits that will lessen the possibility of being injured in traffic accidents. Because of its proven success in the field of school child safety education, the visit of the police officer with "Elmer" has been widely accepted by educators as an effective method of reducing traffic accidents involving school children. At the same time it sponsors friendly relationships between the children and the police officers.

The Safety Division has six trucks equipped with public address system, miniature traffic lights, projectors and other safety equipment, which are utilized for both outdoor and indoor assemblies.

Aside from school child accident prevention, the Safety Division conducts campaigns based on seasonal traffic hazards, culminating in the Christmas and New Years' Holidays, when an extensive programme is carried out, aimed at soliciting the co-operation of all motorists in the interests of safe driving, particularly from the viewpoint of not drinking intoxicants when operating a motor vehicle.

Publicity in connection with accident prevention is handled through weekly radio programmes, guest appearances on television, newspaper articles and public meetings where films are shown and lectures given.
